

Plenary Exam Question – Hippocrates

Would Hippocrates have approved of the treatment used in Source A?
Use the source and your own knowledge to explain the answer (5 marks)

Source A

“Here is the great remedy. Come! You who drive evil things from my stomach and my limbs. He who drinks this shall be cured just as the gods above were cured.”

A spell from the Papyrus Ebers. The doctor was to chant this spell while giving the patient the medicine. The Egyptian doctor who used the papyrus had written next to the spell, ‘This spell is really excellent – successful many times.’

Level	Characteristic	Mark
0	Answers that make no reference to the source or to Hippocrates. No answer to the question.	0
1	These answers will simply repeat information in the source	1
2	Answers the question but the answer is vague and general	2-3
3	Uses the source to answer the question but doesn't use own knowledge	4
4	Uses the source to answer the question and uses own knowledge	5

SAMPLE

PEER ASSESSMENT
Level
Mark/5

Plenary Exam Question – Hippocrates

Would Hippocrates have approved of the treatment used in Source A?
Use the source and your own knowledge to explain the answer (5 marks)

Source A

“Here is the great remedy. Come! You who drive evil things from my stomach and my limbs. He who drinks this shall be cured just as the gods above were cured.”

A spell from the Papyrus Ebers. The doctor was to chant this spell while giving the patient the medicine. The Egyptian doctor who used the papyrus had written next to the spell, ‘This spell is really excellent – successful many times.’

Level	Characteristic	Mark
0	Answers that make no reference to the source or to Hippocrates. No answer to the question.	0
1	These answers will simply repeat information in the source	1
2	Answers the question but the answer is vague and general	2-3
3	Uses the source to answer the question but doesn't use own knowledge	4
4	Uses the source to answer the question and uses own knowledge	5

SAMPLE

PEER ASSESSMENT
Level
Mark/5